A big pantry and gailey are in the walst, and forward of these is the engine-room, for this replica will travel in modern style, as a sixty-horsepower engine is to be installed to carry the sturdy craft along at good speed, and the ancient sail plan will be increly auxiliary. Crew quarters will be in the forecastle.

When Mr. Morss starts out in his ancient and modern ship it will be on a veynge of discovery. Heretofore, most of his time has been spent in the big yacht facing game, but now, in his odd craft, he plans to cruise all along the Atlantic coast.

SHARPE FAVORS

Ithaca, February 10.—Dr. Albert H. Sharpe. Cornell's football coach, declared to-day that he was strongly in favor of numbering the players on football teams, so that they might he distinguished. He thought this reform was inevitable sooner or later, and is in favor of adopting it now. Cornell's representative on the football rules committee, Captain Joseph Beacham, has no special instructions from Corpell,

Frank Ch. acc, the new manager of the local 3 nerican League Clubreached here from the Pacific Coast a few minutes after the learne meeting ended and was accorded a hearty greeting.

One of the first to shake his band was Manager McGraw, of the New York Nationals, who said:

"I congratulate yoll on getting into a good town," Jake Stahl and Clark Griffith followed suit, As soon as Chance conteath his breath, he said:

"I am glad to come to New York, and doubly slad that I am with the American League. I like Bermuda for a training place, and there will be no trading of players until the team gets back from there. I intend playing first base myself, and hope to be in the opening game. The first match will be played this afternoon Being Made for Virginia's Part in Fifth Regin.

Each winner is to play each other cousin challenge and a half dozen other racing classics.

Allwaukee's support to the new association is as good as assured, since the 3 A. A. and the Motor Cups Holding Company have selected Savannah for the 132 Vanderbilt race. The new associations will ary to pull Elgin, Ill. into line, for with the Illinois road events recalled, the A. A. A. would have the Grand Prix and Vanderbilt as the only two big road racing events, while the new association would add the Elgin free for all, Elgin, Aurora and Jeneks trophies.
